“ I am heartbroken to learn that Mr. Beelow has passed away. He was a longtime precinct clerk for elections in both Pickens County and most recently Greenville County. He and his wife have worked nearly every election. He was never one to break a commitment, regardless of circumstances. He will forever be remembered for his devotion to community service and his awesome sense of humor. Heaven gained another angel far too soon. Fly high my friend. Please know that Mrs. Beelow and family will be in my prayers.

“ I adored Al from the moment we met in 2017 when I first came to work at H&R Block. He was always so loving and supportive, even when I decided to leave the company. I couldn't let go of him as my Tax Man though. He was my biggest cheerleader, bragging about me to everyone in the office as I left the last time I saw him. He was so easy speak with candidly about anything from personal events to God. I was so excited to get to see him when I was scheduled to bring my tax forms in on Friday. I will miss my dear friend ☐ Love you, Al ❤️
