

Daniel Scott McGoldrick

February 2, 1989 - July 13, 2024

Daniel was the beloved third child of six children.

He was lovingly called, "Ground Hog Baby" as he was born on this popular holiday. He loved and cherished his children. He enjoyed spending time with family, friends, and fishing at the lake. His legacy will live on through the lives of his children. He will be missed dearly.

Palmetto Cremation Service is assisting the family.

“ Daniel! Man I can't believe this has really happened. You were the best guy friend I could of ever asked for. You were also my brother In law that turned into a sibling love/bond! I will miss all your corny jokes, how silly you were. Just you always coming to hang out. Matt loved you man and he knew you loved him! We will continue to tell your kiddos about your. Rest in Paradise my brother. I love you Daniel!
