

Daniel Valdivia

February 5, 1979 - July 19, 2021

A man who loved fiercely.

A man who drove a little too fast.

A man who loved to sing in the car, especially if the music was loud and he had someone else singing along with him (something inherited from his father, I'm sure of it).

A man who would sit in the corner of a room. You would look at him and he would smile, and then you would instantly just have to smile back.

A man who came from humble beginnings but was defined by so much more. He never met a stranger and never made a stranger feel as such.

A kind and loving spirit that made you realize all your faults aren't the sum of who you are.

A man who wasn't perfect, but never did he profess to be. He knew he had flaws but accepted yours.

A man who left too soon.

A man who leaves behind a family that loved him to the moon and back.

A man named Daniel Martin Valdivia.

Daniel's service will be held at Hillcrest Memorial Park (graveside) at 10 a.m. on Sunday, August 1st. Following the service everyone is invited back to the home of Daniel's mother, Tammy Valdivia.

“ *I am not sure where to begin. My heart has been broken since I found out you were gone. I guess I want to say "thank you." Thank you for....making me laugh uncontrollably until my sides hurt. For...teaching me to let go of my inhibitions and relax. For...showing me that singing in the car with the radio blasting was worth the people staring at us. For...listening and giving me your unfiltered, raw and truthful opinion. For...being you and not giving in to the social norm. But mostly..."thank you" for letting me be apart of your life! There is no one like you and you will be terribly missed.
Love you always!
