

Dora Elizabeth Stancil

December 2, 1943 - March 25, 2022

Seneca, SC - Dora Elizabeth Howard Stancil was called home March 25, 2022. Born in Greenville, South Carolina, she was the daughter to the late John Howard and Ocie Nix Howard. Surviving is a son Billy Galloway from Easley, South Carolina and a daughter Lisa Galloway Reid from Liberty, South Carolina. Surviving is seven loving grandchildren, six most precious great grandkids and six awesome great great grandkids. Also surviving is a brother Tony Howard and a sister Dean Galloway (Harvey). Mrs. Stancil was predeceased by her son Ricky Galloway and a brother Edwin Howard. She was known for her love of her family and her love of the Lord and her church. The family would like to express their appreciation to Pastor Edwards and to all of you who have expressed sympathies. The family will be planning a future celebration of life service and will be getting the word out. Palmetto Cremation Service is assisting the Stancil family. Online condolences may be made to Palmettocremationservice.com