“ My heart breaks for you all! Eugenia was a truly wonderful friend and even though we didn't see each other or even talk often , especially the last couple of years , she will always have a special place in my heart and memories! We shared many great times together , shared many laughs as well as tears. One of my favorite memories of her is from many years ago when we were still in school , we would talk pretty much daily on the phone and my daddy thought we spent too much time on the phone. One night we were talking and daddy told me it was time to hang up but we kept talking. After the second time he told me to hand up and I still didn't , he took the phone from me and hung it up himself. Eugenia called right back , daddy answered and told her it was time to get off the phone. We laughed about that for years! I wish I could be there at the service but I will be out of town. I wish God's peace for you all. Just know that she loved you dearly. I will always love her!

“ Although we journey in these vessels of clay, all who are in Christ are promised that glad Reunion Day. And, as we shall miss our loved ones who sleep, we ponder in our hearts the memories we keep. We pray that God’s grace will see us through, and we’ll give Him all praise and glory He’s due. So, let us not lament on the things we have lost, rather trust in the One Who paid the costs. God’s blessings.

“ I will miss my Mom forever. I am so sad but so grateful I was with her the night before she passed away.
