“ I met Jody for a brief time in the late Summer of 1976.

Through Barry whom I met through my Mama and Daddy; Charles (RIP) and Scarlet Keaton at the mill in Easley where we three worked.

I have wondered and thought fondly of him through the years.

I do so wish we had kept in touch.

Jody took my sister June and I to Lake Jocassee. We had a great that day.

I was pregnant, not by Jody. He was so nice and sweet to me. He even bought my baby a beautiful blanket.

Her name was Marilyn and she has passed away also. January 31, 2019 of breast cancer.

Something had put him in my mind so I started looking again and found this.

I am so terribly sorry for this loss. ❤️

“ I am very sorry at the loss of Jody. He was a quiet, clean neighbor and he will be missed in my neighborhood.
