

John Reed Harper Jr.

December 29, 1973 - July 30, 2021

Easley, SC: Mr. John Reed Harper Jr. went home to be with The Lord on July 30th, 2021. He was the son of the late John Reed Harper Sr. and Donna Black Harper.

Surviving are daughter Samantha Harper of Pickens, SC, two sons Dylan Harper of Easley, SC, and Christopher Harper of Liberty, SC. Two sisters Michelle Harper of Easley, SC, Shannon Thomas, of Dacusville, SC, and a brother James Harper, of Dacusville, SC, Also surviving are four grandchildren: Tripp, Jace, Lily, and Stella.

John was an avid painter, and fisherman. His preferred catch was catfish, but he would take anything that would bite, he was kind hearted and loving, always helped when he could, and never met a stranger.

John had a very fulfilled life, he loved everyone, but most of all he loved his children and grandchildren. He will be missed by many that knew him, he had lots of friend and if you knew John, You know he lived life to its fullest potential.

John go rest now in the bosom of Jesus, just to see your face when Jesus says well done thy good and faithful servant.

Rest in Peace John, we love you.

“ Johnboy was one of the few people in this world that could remind me how my Daddy "Cotton" Gillespie was. He loved his kids and grandkids more than life. Hes my sister's Husband but he was more like a brother to me we've had more good times then bad. When I caught my first adult charge at 18 he got a public disorderly to come to jail to make sure I was alright which was pretty stupid but my Daddy said it's the thought that counts. I've heard John and my Dad say more times than I could begin to count "only the good die young" them two are proof they telling the truth Johnboy you got a lot people here that's gonna miss you but it's great to know I've got two people in heaven watching down on me thank you for always being there for me I've got a lot more shit to say bro you know I hate texting so I'm gonna go visit some of the family and share some stories I Love You, Bro

“ John boy there is no more pain!! I hate to see you leave us so soon. I know you still had a lot you wanted to do for your kids and grandkids, but now you are their guardian. And I know you will always be by their side. I hope to join you in heaven one day. We were all so close growing up, now we will all be together again one day in heaven. I know the fish are almost jumping in your boat. At least we know you are not alone, you your mom and dad, my mom and dad, C.J., (I know he's fishing with you) and grandma. I know you were met at the gates with all those open arms. I will miss you so much, til it's my turn, and you'll be there with open arms to meet me. Love you so much, and miss you so bad. Your cuz always.

“ You were more like a son to me I'll never forget waking up and seeing catfish hanging from the porch or you swinging off a cliff into the lake from a rope and the limb broke all the camping and fishing trips, the beach trips the party's we had. And man how clean you could keep a house the times you lived with me my house stayed clean. And a whole lot of other memories I'll never forget but can't mention. You left your mark on all of us and I will cherish the times and memories we had. I love you and will miss you go rest high John boy till we meet again.

As Lynn said you was my only son There are to many memories for any one to be special. Just knowing you felt my home was yours was enough At the apts you and I shared a lot. Spending most of it with our grandbabies ,4th of July cookouts walking to downtown Easley. as I write my tears are falling my comfort is knowing you meet Jesus before me the years here are days there tell everyone I see them in time Rest in peace John boy till we met again Aunt Brenda “ YHow can I share a memory when I have a lifetime of memories? You was more than a cousin.. you was like a brother!! Through all the years we never drifted away from one another. You was always there. I'll never forget your smile and the twinkle in your eyes (you know like a mischievous look). I can say that I know you loved me, just as you knew that i loved you! My dear cousin.. your going to be greatly missed!! You have touched many lives and we will not be the same without you! The day God chose to take you home, He took a piece of me too! I have a hole inside of me now that will forever be there until the day I get to see you again!

“ So many memories thru the years. Remembering u walking thru the house singing Mr. Lonely,or singing Dear Momma to mom. Even you hiding a cat for Myson that he name " lean with it , rock with it " . I sure am missing u. I'll be missing u until it's my time. I love u so very much an not a day will go by that I won't think of u an miss u. Rest now brother. Til I see u again I love u.
