“ I have worked with Mac for over 10+ years and then I have old several tournaments with him and also the professional Bowling association. Mac is the reason I'm still working at Paradise lanes cause he called and asked what I assist Fred the new head mechanic when he left Mac. Man I just want to thank you for all the friendship over the years. I've been Normac over 40+ years and we've always been friends until we meet again. Mac rest in peace.
